DECEMBER/2021-
JANUARY/2022

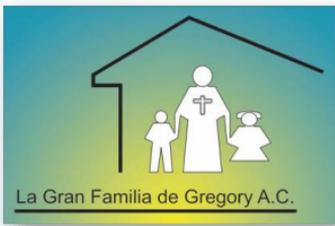

The little ones work on their homework. Every afternoon, from Monday to Friday, we work on the materials that the schools send to our shelter teachers.

Alberto continues to grow and learn to live with his peers. Before, when he was at home, he spent his days locked up in the house without going out, or knowing anything about the school. Now, he has learned to read and improve his life habits. Much remains to be done, but very good steps have been taken in its care.

Happy birthday to Lalo, who celebrated his day with the children. God bless Lalo's health and reward him for the love with which he takes care of the girls and boys.

We go on a walk to climb a mountain. It was a day when there were no school classes. We enjoy exercising and eating in nature. Although when climbing to the top of the mountain, we found remains of a camp that someone would have used in previous days. It scared us and we better go back, because we didn't know who the owners could be.

The students continue to do their homework with the support of the hostel teachers every afternoon from Monday to Friday. Work on the education of girls and boys has not stopped.

Javier is in charge of sheltering his stuffed animal before going to sleep, so that he is not cold. It has been days and nights with very cold temperatures. This shows us that each and every one of us, even if we have been rejected, are still capable of loving and caring. God is always a good Dad, who is looking out for each of his sons and daughters.
